A salary review will be conducted to determine if the employee should receive a pay increase. The review will look over the employee's performance, current pay, and average market salaries to see if an employee is eligible for additional pay.

ADMINISTRATION: Once the advanced degree, certificate, or license is earned, the employee is responsible for submitting evidence of completion to the HR Manager. Such evidence shall consist of official transcripts, diplomas, or a letter from the registrar bearing the seal of the institution. If HR determines that the employee has met the criteria specified in this policy, the HR Manager will sign a personnel action form and forward it to the Executive Director for approval.
